

Identity Between Auggie and Paravana

By SS

Parvana's Identity

Parvana had a lot of identity in our book(The Breadwinner) Parvana was a little girl with her right so slim because she was a girl. Parvana had a lot of love for her family and she really showed her love for her father who was lost half way through the book. Paravana's main motivation is her family. in chapter 1 on page 16 her father said "I need this girl to help me walk" this shows how much paravna love her family. She had to walk her father to places everyday. Parvana's main identity is being strong for a girl because her right were so slim, She even had to dress as a boy to go places. No matter what happens paravan would keep going and be brave no matter what conflict occured. Parava would also partake in risky jobs. I identity paravan as a young girl who can't do anything cause she's a girl. She just wants to live freely. "Look out" parava has been trying to avoid the taliban so she can live freely. This quote shows how motivated she is to leave and how bad she's living.

Auggie identity

Auggie in the book wonder has a lot of identity.. Auggie was born with a lot of problems with his body like cancer. Auggie parents were so afraid to send them to school because of the way he looked, He wanted to wear a helmet because he did not want people to see him. His first day of school kids made fun of him for the way he looked. Auggie had a very powerful and had a strong mindset through all of the hurtful rumors, he was very brave to go school and not get bullied. Later on, agugie was a star because people realized what he had be through, and everyone looked up to him just for surviving. Aggies identity is hard to find at first but later on its not. Auggie showed how brave he was and how nothing was hurtful at the end. I identity Auggie as a young boy who had many of cancers when he was younger and persevered all the way through school and he was a brave young little boy. He never gave up and he ended up winning the school award. "Look at the kid his face is weird" this is what the kids said to Auggie and Auggie never took offense and was brave and stood up for himself.
